

St. Luke's Messenger

Dear Parish Family

May—August 2019

A year ago, at this time, we had just returned from a visit with our first grandchild, Owen, and we were anticipating the birth of our second grandchild, Simon.

So, last year, I decided to forego a Mission trip to Tanzania.

This year, I am going back to Tanzania...leaving June 5th and (hopefully, God willing) returning home June 15th. This trip is very different than my "usual" trips to Tanzania!

Now, going for my 11th or 12th time, I had always been "comfortable" with where I was going and what I was doing. I had built relationships with two Bishops in Tanzania, had Clergy Conferences in the Diocese of Dar Es Salaam and the South Highlands (staying in Mbeye), and have known a number of clergy in those Dioceses through the years.

This year, it will be quite different. Bishop Valentine Mokiwa is no longer Bishop of Dar Es Salaam. And, this past January, while I was teaching at the Anglican Leadership Institute in Charleston, I met another Bishop (Vithalis Yusuph) of the Diocese of Bihamarulo in the Northwest region of Tanzania near Mwanza (a relatively new Diocese) who invited me back to Tanzania to preach. I will be preaching in the Cathedral in the latter Diocese on June 9th (Pentecost) and teaching in Dar Es Salaam on June 11th.

I have just found out the topics that I will be speaking on. I am currently writing the teaching, having just completed writing the sermon. And, by God's grace, Dr. Rick Vanderslice, who is traveling to Tanzania with his family to visit and share in ministry at the Valentine Children's Home, has consented to accompany me to the Diocese of Bihamarulo.

I have probably been on around 30 mission trips in my years of ministry. Although I am not afraid of flying per se, I don't like flying internationally. I grew up as a "middle class kid" in Pittsburgh, and we did not travel often; and only by car. The first time that I flew in a plane was to meet Meredith's parents when I was 21 years old! And, the first time that I flew internationally was to Honduras in 1994 when we did our first Mission trip from St. Luke's (I did Mission trips to Mexico when I lived and served in Texas, but we drove!). Preaching and teaching in foreign countries where one has an interpreter is always a unique experience: depending upon the interpreter, the setting, and how long you are expected to speak....especially since, with an interpreter, the time is more limited!

So many different and challenging experiences! I am comfortable preaching and teaching here....familiar, comfortable, amongst people I know, with a setting I know, in a culture I know. Usually not wondering if I will arrive on time, usually not wondering if I will be "jet-lagged" or whether I will be held up by weather, mechanical failure, customs, or a host of other reasons. But, when traveling internationally, I have to make sure that I only drink and brush my teeth with bottled water, and get all the proper immunizations and medications before I leave.

For some of you, this is "no big deal," "old hat," "easily done." For me, to be honest, I would, in many ways, just rather "stay home." But I know, without a doubt, I am called to go! How the Lord has opened doors! How the Lord has paved the way! How the Lord has given me what to say! And, how I know that when I am there, I will experience opportunities, friendships, and blessings in wonderful ways! I will return home rejoicing, and with peace. I am sure that I will return home with stories! The Lord weaves His will in such wonderful ways! I have experienced this before; I know that I will experience it again.

And yet, the anticipation of getting ready, and the travel, and the challenges, already have me filled with mixed emotions!

The Lord has a desire to bless His people, to have us be His servants, to weave His will into our lives to bless our lives and others; to nurture old relationships and to build new ones; to bring people into relationship with Himself and to cause others to grow deeper. And, sometimes, this blessing for us and others requires us to be faithful to His call and to get "outside of our comfort zone;" to be willing to risk, pay a price. What I have learned over and over again is that He loves us, we can trust Him, and it is worth it!

Are you serving Him? Are you responsive to His call? Have you been a witness for the sake of others, for the sake of His kingdom? Have you experienced His faithfulness in a way that only comes when you are stretched, or take a step of faith, or follow His call prayerfully? Have you stepped outside of your comfort zone?

As we approach the summertime, a time when we usually think: "vacation," maybe now is the time for you to take a step of faith; to respond to His call and move outside of your comfort zone. Maybe take a step, or, if you are not quite ready, pray this summer; so that maybe when we come to the fall, you might take a step of faith: join a small group, a discipleship class, a ministry, or even sign up for a Mission Trip; and see how the Lord might bless you, and others!

Love in Christ,
Greg Kronz

Bookshop Greetings

Such a perfect time of year! Join us in our beautifully decorated Shop for a multitude of remembrances. Our lovely cards are amazing for only $1.00. Surely there is someone who needs to hear from you. May this gorgeous season being untold blessings and unexpected delights to share with others. See ya soon. Sundays: 8:45am-10am; 11:15am-12; Wednesdays 5:15-6pm.

Tanzania Mission Trip

Please keep our Tanzanian mission group in your prayers. They'll be in Tanzania from June 5-15, mostly helping out at the Valentine Children's Home. Greg will branch off and preach on Pentacost at the Cathedral in Bihamarulo, in northwest Tanzania near Burundi and Lake Victoria, as well as teaching in Dar Es Salaam.

Hog Heaven BBQ

How about a round of applause for our Hog Heaven BBQ Team, our favorite motley crew of do-gooders! Beyond supplying delicious, savory food at the majority of our events and being just generally swell guys, did you know that they also donate food and time to charities such as Hilton Head Heroes and the Children's Miracle Network and others? Thank you, fellas!

MOSES & THE FREEDOM FANATICS

What a fantastic time the choristers of the Canterbury and St. Nicholas Choirs had telling the story of Moses, Miriam, and Aaron, Pharaoh and the plagues the Lord sent to free His people, the Israelites, from their slavery in Egypt ("Frogs", "Lice, Flies, Fleas"), and "The Voice of the Lord"! In case you missed this musical adventure, it was presented Sunday, February 24 during the 10:00am service. The choristers are still joyfully singing the songs from the musical and sharing their memories—they will never forget how mightily God used Moses to free His people from their bondage of slavery in Egypt?

TIM MALCHAK IN CONCERT

Sunday, May 19, 6:00pm

Singer/Songwriter Tim Malchak will bring his own bend of "Gospel Americana" (folk/country & soft rock) to St. Luke's Church in concert on Sunday, May 19th at 6:00pm. In this 75-minute concert, Tim presents his original songs in a solo acoustic setting, combined with stories of the personal and scriptural inspiration behind them. With humor, an engaging style and refreshing transparency, Tim gives his powerful testimony of God's work in his life, taking him from fame in Nashville, through drug addiction and recovery to using his gifts for God's glory today. The concert is FREE and a love offering will be taken. St. Luke's is pleased to host this event and encourages our members and the community to join us for this unique evening of worship, praise, and inspiration! (www.malchak.com for more information)

Dan Forrest's REQUIEM FOR THE LIVING

In celebration of the season of Lent, the St. Luke's Choir, soloists, and chamber ensemble presented the exquisite large choral work REQUIEM FOR THE LIVING by Dan Forrest on Sunday, April 7 at 10:00am service.

A Requiem, at its core, is a prayer for rest – traditionally for the deceased. Dan Forrest's REQUIEM FOR THE LIVING (2013), however, forms a narrative just as much for the living and their own struggle with pain and sorrow as for the dead.

The 10:00am service began that Sunday at 9:56 with the Introit, a plea for rest. Following the processional hymn, the choir sang the Kyrie: Lord have mercy; Christ have mercy; Lord have mercy. At the offertory, the choir and instruments presented Vanitas Vanitatum, the movement Forrest composed to replace the traditional Dies Irae; the text is based on Job 3:3 and Ecclesiastes 3:20, 12:7-8 and the music is a juxtaposition of aggressive rhythms and long floating melodic lines – be prepared for the timpani! The Sanctus followed with different glimpses of the "heavens and earth, full of Thy glory". The lovely Agnus Dei prepared our hearts to receive communion, opening with a lovely flute/oboe duet. The work closed with Lux Aeterna, which portrays light, peace, and rest – for both the deceased and the living.

REQUIEM FOR THE LIVING was sung in Latin except for Jesus' words (Matthew 11:28) in the final movement (Matt Walley, tenor), "Come unto me, all ye who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

REQUIEM FOR THE LIVING was commissioned by the Hickory Choral Society (Hickory, NC) as part of its ongoing commitment to funding new major works for the choral repertoire. The work is Dan Forrest's largest piece to date, and was written over a period of approximately 10 months in 2012. It was performed in Carnegie Hall in January 2014.

Are Our Children Too Busy?

Veronica Chisholm

I'm not sure how many of you will read this article, but I pray these words will reach your heart with a loving, warm feeling of "we need to make some changes".

Are we making our children's agenda too busy? Perhaps this will be a sensitive matter to you, but please bear with me. I agree with the famous latin phrase "mens sana in corpore sano" (healthy mind in a healthy body):

- sports are good for kids (and teens) health as they build teamwork and cooperation
- learning a musical instrument and foreign language are great for the brain creating new pathways
- all arts foster individual expression and creative skills
- play dates provide opportunities to practice important social and emotional skills

The list is long and we could keep on going. We love our kids and want them to have a healthy and successful life. And here comes the "but" most of us do not want to hear.

But... if we are honest, we have a quick tendency to put aside what plays the most important factor on our children's lives: the kingdom of God. Everything else takes first dibs. We will drive long distances for a game, sit for hours and hours during practices and rehearsals, etc. Here it comes again... but what about their hearts, character, and their faith? Let's not put it aside. We don't have to choose between church and other activities. They are all important.

But we do need to invest in our kids' spiritual lives. We must give them opportunities to taste and see that the Lord is good, to grow in the knowledge and love of God, to come together on Sundays and praise the Almighty creator, loving father, prince of peace, marvelous counselor. Allow them to have a sense of being the body of Christ, the church, for whom Jesus laid his life. Let's give them the gift of belonging to a community of believers and knowing nothing can separate them from the love of God that is revealed in Christ Jesus our Lord!

St. Luke's Youth Ministry

Summer Mission Trip Opportunities

We have two amazing mission trip opportunities for youth this summer. We are filling up fast for our Dominican Trip but have spots available for Honduras.

St Luke's Mission Trip Santiago, Dominican Republic June 16-22, 2019

What's going on?

This summer our youth ministry at St. Luke's has an amazing opportunity to go to Santiago, Dominican Republic with our youth group at St. Luke's Church to work with Casas por Cristo <https://casasporcristo.org> to construct two four-room secure homes - complete with cement foundation, electricity, windows and doors! Our volunteer team through fundraising will cover the cost of the project and build these houses from the ground up and in doing so provide the home as a free gift to a family in need.

High School International Mission Trip 2019

7th annual trip to HONDURAS

Monday July 08—Monday July 15, 2019

Serve Others and Transform your Life!

What will you do: We will go on our 7th annual trip with UPH to work with two after school programs for local low-income children. The after-school program's focus is on helping the children to build faith in Christ, develop study skills, learn leadership tools, practice better hygiene and to acquire other life skills so they will stay in school and have the tools to succeed and be a force of change in their community. We will be working with local Honduran teenagers along with the Urban Promise staff throughout the week.

UPDATE FROM BETSY HAKE

"Enlarge your house; build an addition. Spread out your home, and spare no expense!

For you will soon be bursting at the seams." Isaiah 54; 2, 3

God gave us this verse over a year ago when we were asking Him if we should close our school due to increased government requirements. Thank you for praying with us! He has done marvelous things including much expansion as He promised!

We welcomed seven new girls into our family this past month. Elvia had gone on a mission trip with some of our older girls to visit families in La Esperanza (see photo up above) and they became aware of these young girls and their need for a family. We praise God for each of these beautiful girls and are praying for their adjustment to life at the Villa and for God to continue to meet their every need.

We thank God for the way He used The Church Mouse, a thrift store on Hilton Head Island, S.C., to provide this van for our ministry. We had prayed and prayed for more transportation since our school population has grown considerably and especially in order to pick up the children whose families work in or near the dump.

So instead of closing down the school, God brought increase! We are so excited to be able to be a part of what God is doing in each one of these young lives so full of potential and promise!

We thank Jesus for the Church Mouse whom He touched to also provide the funds for a new classroom to accommodate our ever-expanding school.

Speaking of expansion, we praise God for the team from St. Luke's Hilton Head who threw a baby shower for Marlyn. She is due at the end of the month. She and Emma are doing well and I am so excited to be a grandmama! Our borders are expanding in all directions!

We will start construction of our chapel on the Villa property at the end of the month with the Cedar's Team from Prince George, Canada.

We are so excited to finally be able to begin this house of prayer for all nations and to host this beloved team from Cedar's Christian School!

And last but not least we are praising God for Susana's acceptance into a five month YWAM (Youth With A Mission) program here in Tegucigalpa. Here she is pictured at her graduation with her brother Noe who works fulltime in the ministry teaching computers and taking care of the young bucks.

Thank you so much for your prayers and support. We are more convinced than ever that prayer is the work! When we join together in prayer for His Kingdom, He moves powerfully. Much love and blessings to each of you!

Betsy for the whole Jericho Family

Please join us in praying for Susana, for the School, and for more women to join our workshop.

May Outreach: Memory Matters

Once again, Memory Matters is very grateful to be chosen to receive funds for ongoing programming. St. Luke's continues to support our mission and truly understands the importance of supporting those in need of memory care and their families. We have been blessed to continue the vision that started at St Luke's over 22 years ago.

Last year St Luke's partnered with Memory Matters in providing the funds to enrich the gross motor skills equipment at the center. Physical activity helps improve cognition in adults with cognitive decline. This year our goal of providing the best brain day for all of our participants continues. The funds for 2019 will go to continue building our memory enhancing programs.

During a typical themed day at Memory Matters we gather in to what are call pods. Pods are interactive small groups working together on projects, lessons and even iPads. These small groups give the participant continued use of daily skills, expression of thoughts, and socialization. A typical pod may be collaging, word games, poetry expression, working with clay, playing a game of dominos, or even making flower arrangements. Meaningful activities—those that engage the person's attention and connect with their interests—are critical in the provision of care for those with cognitive impairment.

This gift from St Luke's and the Church Mouse will provide the perfect balance to a fun activity driven program. Again, thanks so much for your continued support for helping sustain excellent programs at Memory Matters.

June Outreach: Hospice

Hospice Care of the Lowcountry is your community based, nonprofit, independent, Medicare certified hospice and palliative care agency serving Beaufort and Jasper counties for the past 36 years. Our mission is to provide pain and distressing symptom management for the patient dealing with terminal illness and end of life challenges. We provide comfort care while honoring the dignity of the individual. A plan of care specific to the patient is written to address physical, emotional and spiritual concerns. All medications, medical equipment and supplies related to the diagnosis are provided. Our services are provided by a professional team of physicians, nurses, social workers, certified nursing assistants, chaplain, counselors, therapists and over 150 volunteers. We offer several programs and services to our patients and their families; Hos-Pets Pet Therapy, Pet Peace of Mind, We Honor Veterans, Caregiver Relief, Aromatherapy and Bereavement.

Our Bereavement Program includes weekly support groups on HHI and in Bluffton, individualized counseling, outreach to the local schools in times of crisis and The Harper Project – support group for pregnancy and infant loss. These services are available to our patient's families and the community at no charge. The Bereavement team consists of (3) social workers and our chaplain. The social worker and chaplain meet every patient upon admission and often see them and the family throughout the hospice stay. We maintain contact with the family for a minimum of 13 months after a loved one's death. This time period covers the many "firsts"; holidays, birthdays and anniversaries. This contact includes sympathy card, phone calls, mailings/literature throughout the year and an invitation to our Celebration of Life Memorial Service. This service is gathering of staff and the family members of deceased patients sharing and honoring those who have passed within the past year. We meet people where they are in their grief process and offer hope to go on.

July Outreach: Pregnancy Center

In November 2019, Pregnancy Center and Clinic of The Low Country (PCCLC) will have served the community for 29 years.

Firstly, as a Crisis Pregnancy Ministry, and now as a bona fide basic prenatal medical clinic offering Free early Adequate Prenatal Care through the 16th week of gestation to any uninsured woman. PCCLC serves without regard to age, race, ethnicity, religion, socioeconomic status, or geographic residence.

Although we are unashamedly a Christian faith-based ministry, proselytization is not our first goal. We follow the example of Jesus in providing a wealth of services which may include food, clothing, counseling, and sharing His Gospel. The options of pregnancy are discussed to enable the staff to know how to minister to the client. Glory to God for the advent of the miraculous Ultrasound, for it is an absolute truth that 'a picture speaks a thousand words!' This instrument

'cuts to the chase' upon sight of even a tiny beating heart!

In 2018, 1,182 clients received various types of medical care, 438 of whom initiated prenatal care in our Hilton Head clinic or at one of our three satellite sites in Bluffton, Hardeeville, or Ridgeland. PCCLC documented 234 births owing. Clients are offered monthly support services including Bible study, Medicaid assistance, twice monthly meetings with guest speakers from relevant agencies, and ESL (English as a Second language). Each graduate from the 16 week prenatal care program and/or attendees of the support group programs is entitled to get a newborn Layette set.

The clients are oftentimes Spoiled with Baby Showers through various church groups, gifts provided throughout the year by others, and Christmas gifts for baby by a third group. We have utilized monies received from St. Luke's Church through the years for application to several needs, and look forward next to exchanging the worn flooring throughout the Hilton Head office.

Thank You, St. Luke's parish!

Counselor's Comments: Always Useful to God

Sharon Smith

It is totally awesome to take the time to notice the beauty all around us, especially as Spring blossoms in all its splendor. During this season I have been trying to focus on all the positive things God puts in front of me daily – what is right rather than what is wrong.

To begin with, one needs to meditate on the truth that God created each of us with a special gift and talent, and he sees us, through Jesus' blood, as totally acceptable in His eyes. This means that any time we spend in self-flagellation is wasted time and diverts us from hearing His voice. The truth: "... I am fearfully and wonderfully made. (Ps 139:14a, KJV)

Secondly, it is important to embrace change in our lives as new opportunities for growth. Oftentimes change involves loss and our focus is on what didn't go the way we had planned or desired. I have found that in these times when I feel anxious about the unknown, I am drawn closer to God by needing Him more. Also, He opens doors I never would have imagined and provides in unexpected ways. "Dear brothers and sisters, when troubles of any kind come your way, consider it an opportunity for great joy. For you know that when your faith is tested, your endurance has a chance to grow." (James 1:2,3 NLT)

Finally, we need to constantly seek to hear His voice as to how He wants us to use our gifts throughout our lives. As we move through the different seasons of our lives, we may be called to serve in different ways, but we are never finished until we leave this world. I remember Bishop Salmon telling a story of a woman who had become housebound. Rather than turning to self-pity, she took on a ministry of writing encouraging notes to shut-ins. Then she lost her eyesight, and again refusing to become disheartened, she decided she would now pray for others in need. She knew God wasn't finished with her until He took her home.

I pray that we all continue to serve Him, according to His will, in all the seasons of our lives. "There are different kinds of spiritual gifts, but the same Spirit is the source of them all. There are different kinds of service, but we serve the same Lord. God works in different ways, but it is the same God who does the work in all of us. A spiritual gift is given to each of us so we can help each other." (1 Cor. 12:4-7, NLT)

Are you open to how God may be calling you to serve in a different way?
