OUTREACH FOR JANUARY: ACTS COUNSELING SCHOLARSHIP FUND

“Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.” -Matt. 11:28
This Scripture verse has been the mission of Agape Counseling & Training Services of the Low-country, Inc., better known as ACTS Counseling since our inception at Saint Luke’s in 1996. Our state licensed and Christian counselors hope to share the love of Christ with every client that enters our office in an unassuming way. It is our desire, to minister to all those in need, through the power of the Holy Spirit and regardless of their ability to pay or their religious affiliation. Over the years, we’ve been blessed to see God work and provide comfort in what seems to be hopeless situations. We counsel children, adolescents, adults, couples, and families. All funds received are used to subsidize those unable to pay and each recipient is asked to pay something toward the counseling if they are able. Your donations allow the body of Christ at Saint Luke’s to join with us in reaching out to many hurting people who otherwise would have received secular counseling or no counseling at all. Please prayerfully consider partnering with us by donating to our Scholarship Fund and keeping us and our clients in your prayers. Thank you in advance for your generosity. May you be blessed as you bless others.— Sharon Smith, LMFT/Director

WELCOME VISITORS!

We are happy you joined us for worship today! We would love to know more about you! Please fill out one of Visitor cards located in the pew racks in front of you and drop it in the offering plate as it goes by.

The Collect for Purity

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Old Testament Reading Jeremiah 3:19-4:4 ESV Pew Bible p. 749

¹⁹ “I said, How I would set you among my sons, and give you a pleasant land, a heritage most beautiful of all nations. And I thought you would call me, My Father, and would not turn from following me. ²⁰ Surely, as a treacherous wife leaves her husband, so have you been treacherous to me, O house of Israel, declares the LORD.” ²¹ A voice on the bare heights is heard, the weeping and pleading of Israel’s sons because they have perverted their way; they have forgotten the LORD their God. ²² “Return, O faithless sons; I will heal your faithlessness.” “Behold, we come to you, for you are the LORD our God. ²³ Truly the hills are a delusion, the orgies on the mountains. Truly in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel. ²⁴ “But from our youth the shameful thing has devoured all for which our fathers labored, their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters. ²⁵ Let us lie down in our shame, and let our dishonor cover us. For we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even to this day, and we have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.” ¹“If you return, O Israel, declares the LORD, to me you should return. If you remove your detestable things from my presence, and do not waver, ²and if you swear, ‘As the LORD lives,’ in truth, in justice, and in righteousness, then nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they glory.” ³ For thus says the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem: “Break up your fallow ground, and sow not among thorns. ⁴ Circumcise yourselves to the LORD; remove the foreskin of your hearts, O men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest my wrath go forth like fire, and burn with none to quench it, because of the evil of your deeds.”

The Psalm Psalm 130 ABCP p. 446

¹ Out of the deep have I called unto you, O LORD; *
Lord, hear my voice.
² O let your ears consider well *
the voice of my supplications.
³ If you, LORD, were to mark what is done amiss, *
O Lord, who could abide it?
⁴ For there is mercy with you; *
therefore you shall be feared.
⁵ I wait for the LORD; my soul waits for him; *
in his word is my trust.
⁶ My soul waits for the Lord, *
more than watchmen for the morning, more than watchmen for the morning.
⁷ O Israel, trust in the LORD, for with the LORD there is mercy, *
and with him is plenteous redemption;
⁸ And he shall redeem Israel *
from all their sins.

The Epistle Reading 1 Corinthians 7:17-24 ESV Pew Bible p. 1135

¹⁷ Only let each person lead the life that the Lord has assigned to him, and to which God has called him. This is my rule in all the churches. ¹⁸ Was anyone at the time of his call already circumcised? Let him not seek to remove the marks of circumcision. Was anyone at the time of his call uncircumcised? Let him not seek circumcision. ¹⁹ For neither circumcision counts for anything nor uncircumcision, but keeping the commandments of God. ²⁰ Each one should remain in the condition in which he was called. ²¹ Were you a bondservant when called? Do not be concerned about it. (But if you can gain your freedom, avail yourself of the opportunity.) ²² For he who was called in the Lord as a bondservant is a freedman of the Lord. Likewise he who was free when called is a bondservant of Christ. ²³ You were bought with a price; do not become bondservants of men. ²⁴ So, brothers, in whatever condition each was called, there let him remain with God.

Clergy: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.
People: Glory to you Lord Christ.

The Gospel Mark 1:14-20 ESV Pew Bible p. 994

¹⁴ Now after John was arrested, Jesus came into Galilee, proclaiming the gospel of God, ¹⁵ and saying, “The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel.” ¹⁶ Passing alongside the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew the brother of Simon casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. ¹⁷ And Jesus said to them, “Follow me, and I will make you become fishers of men.” ¹⁸ And immediately they left their nets and followed him. ¹⁹ And going on a little farther, he saw James the son of Zebedee and John his brother, who were in their boat mending the nets. ²⁰ And immediately he called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants and followed him.

Clergy: The Gospel of the Lord.
People: Praise to you Lord Christ.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

All baptized and believing Christians are invited to share Holy Communion. All who desire a blessing may come forward to the altar rail with your hands crossing your chest. Please inform an usher if you require a gluten free wafer.
