ART EXHIBIT IN THE SANCTUARY: Saint Luke’s is proud to present, Come! The Table Is Ready, an invitation to celebrate gathering with family and friends, but also with those of common faith around the table of our Lord. This exhibition takes the viewer on a journey through Scripture beginning with an engraving of Melchizedek serving Abraham bread and wine, continues with Abraham entertaining angels, as well as a pastel of the Passover Meal. A particular emphasis is placed on the Last Supper with numerous paintings and sculptures. The show includes Rembrandt’s Supper at Emmaus and Billy Graham’s Decision poster on the Great Banquet in Eternity. Handouts are available in the Narthex.

OUTREACH FOR JANUARY: ACTS COUNSELING SCHOLARSHIP FUND

“Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.” -Matt. 11:28
This Scripture verse has been the mission of Agape Counseling & Training Services of the Low-country, Inc., better known as ACTS Counseling since our inception at Saint Luke’s in 1996. Our state licensed and Christian counselors hope to share the love of Christ with every client that enters our office in an unassuming way. It is our desire, to minister to all those in need, through the power of the Holy Spirit and regardless of their ability to pay or their religious affiliation. Over the years, we’ve been blessed to see God work and provide comfort in what seems to be hopeless situations. We counsel children, adolescents, adults, couples, and families. All funds received are used to subsidize those unable to pay and each recipient is asked to pay something toward the counseling if they are able. Your donations allow the body of Christ at Saint Luke’s to join with us in reaching out to many hurting people who otherwise would have received secular counseling or no counseling at all. Please prayerfully consider partnering with us by donating to our Scholarship Fund and keeping us and our clients in your prayers. Thank you in advance for your generosity. May you be blessed as you bless others.—Sharon Smith, LMFT/Director

E-ZINE & BULLETIN

We publish the Sunday Bulletin and send a weekly E-zine on Fridays, with highlights of current activities. Please submit all notice requests to Jessica Maples by the Tuesday before. If you want to be added to our distribution list for the E-zine, please email Jessica at jessicamaples@stlukesghi.org.

WELCOME VISITORS!

We are happy you joined us for worship today! We would love to know more about you! Please fill out one of Visitor cards located in the pew racks in front of you and drop it in the offering plate as it goes by.

¹⁵ “The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among you, from your brothers—it is to him you shall listen— ¹⁶ just as you desired of the LORD your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly, when you said, ‘Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God or see this great fire any more, lest I die.’ ¹⁷ And the LORD said to me, ‘They are right in what they have spoken. ¹⁸ I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their brothers. And I will put my words in his mouth, and he shall speak to them all that I command him. ¹⁹ And whoever will not listen to my words that he shall speak in my name, I myself will require it of him. ²⁰ But the prophet who presumes to speak a word in my name that I have not commanded him to speak, or who speaks in the name of other gods, that same prophet shall die.’ ²¹ And if you say in your heart, ‘How may we know the word that the LORD has not spoken?’— ²² when a prophet speaks in the name of the LORD, if the word does not come to pass or come true, that is a word that the LORD has not spoken; the prophet has spoken it presumptuously. You need not be afraid of him.

- ¹ Praise the LORD. I will give thanks unto the LORD with my whole heart, * in the company of the upright, and among the congregation.
- ² The works of the LORD are great, *
sought out by all who have pleasure in them.
- ³ His work is worthy to be praised and held in honor, *
and his righteousness endures for ever.
- ⁴ He has made his marvelous works to be had in remembrance; *
The LORD is gracious and merciful.
- ⁵ He has given food to those who fear him; *
he shall ever be mindful of his covenant.

⁶ He has shown his people the power of his works, *
that he may give them the heritage of the nations.

⁷ The works of his hands are faithfulness and justice; *
all his commandments are true.

⁸ They stand fast for ever and ever, *
and are done in truth and equity.

⁹ He sent redemption to his people; he has commanded his covenant for ever; *
holy and awesome is his Name.

¹⁰ The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; *
a good understanding have all those who live accordingly; his praise endures for ever.

Epistle Reading 1 Corinthians 8:1-13 ESV Pew Bible p. 1136

Now concerning food offered to idols: we know that “all of us possess knowledge.” This “knowledge” puffs up, but love builds up. ² If anyone imagines that he knows something, he does not yet know as he ought to know. ³ But if anyone loves God, he is known by God. ⁴ Therefore, as to the eating of food offered to idols, we know that “an idol has no real existence,” and that “there is no God but one.” ⁵ For although there may be so-called gods in heaven or on earth— as indeed there are many “gods” and many “lords”— ⁶ yet for us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we exist, and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through whom we exist. ⁷ However, not all possess this knowledge. But some, through former association with idols, eat food as really offered to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. ⁸ Food will not commend us to God. We are no worse off if we do not eat, and no better off if we do. ⁹ But take care that this right of yours does not somehow become a stumbling block to the weak. ¹⁰ For if anyone sees you who have knowledge eating in an idol’s temple, will he not be encouraged, if his conscience is weak, to eat food offered to idols? ¹¹ And so by your knowledge this weak person is destroyed, the brother for whom Christ died. ¹² Thus, sinning against your brothers and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ. ¹³ Therefore, if food makes my brother stumble, I will never eat meat, lest I make my brother stumble.

Clergy: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.
People: Glory to you Lord Christ.

The Gospel Mark 1:21-28 ESV Pew Bible p. 994

²¹ And they went into Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbath he entered the synagogue and was teaching. ²² And they were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one who had authority, and not as the scribes. ²³ And immediately there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit. And he cried out, ²⁴ "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God." ²⁵ But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!" ²⁶ And the unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying out with a loud voice, came out of him. ²⁷ And they were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saying, "What is this? A new teaching with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him." ²⁸ And at once his fame spread everywhere throughout all the surrounding region of Galilee.

Clergy: The Gospel of the Lord.
People: Praise to you Lord Christ.
